THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA
CREATE CHANGE

ECON3700 Written Report Rubric – 100 marks (30%)

Criteria	Exceptional (7) 85-100%	Advanced (6) 75-84%	Proficient (5) 65-74%	Functional (4) 50-64%	Developing (3) 47-49%	Absence-Minimal (1-2) 46% and below
Depth of Analysis (40 marks)	Critically discusses and explains the environmental, social, and economic implications, as well as the options presented by the Industry Expert. Integrates findings from CEA and CBA effectively while evaluating complex trade-offs. The report provides insightful, realistic and convincing recommendations to consider. There is a very clear connection between the problem and your recommendation.	Identifies and discusses the environmental, social, and economic implications, the options highlighted by the Industry Expert. Integrates CEA and CBA findings. Explains trade-offs effectively. The report provides a useful and relevant recommendation. There is a connection between the problem and your recommendation.	Examines the key environmental, social, and economic implications, and the options from the Industry Expert. Integrates CEA and CBA findings. Outlines the trade-offs. The report provides a relevant recommendation. There is some connection between the problem and your recommendation.	Identifies the Industry Expert's options with some evaluation. Some integration of CEA and CBA findings. Identifies the trade-offs. The report provides a potentially useful recommendation to consider but it is lacking some connection to the problem.	The Industry Expert's options are identified with minimal or no evaluation. CEA and CBA findings are minimally addressed. The report recommendation reflects a disconnect with the problem. Because of this, it will be difficult to use your policy recommendations.	Does not meaningfully identify or discuss the options presented by the Industry Expert Does not integrate CEA and CBA findings. There is no recommendation in the report, or the recommendation presented is not relevant to the task.

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA
CREATE CHANGE

ECON3700 Written Report Rubric

Criteria	Exceptional (7) 85-100%	Advanced (6) 75-84%	Proficient (5) 65-74%	Functional (4) 50-64%	Developing (3) 47-49%	Absence-Minimal (1-2) 46% and below
Correctness (40 marks) – Failure to submit the spreadsheet with the required CEA and CBA calculations will result in a zero mark.	Analysis is consistently accurate and precise. Calculations and comparisons between CEA and CBA are flawless, demonstrating a standard that meets or exceeds industry expectations. Tables and/or graphs are used effectively to explain results, enhancing clarity and understanding.	Analysis is mostly accurate, with one or two minor errors. Calculations are correct Tables or graphs are used to support the presentation of results, contributing to clarity.	Analysis is generally correct with some minor errors. Basic use of tables or graphs to present results, though not always optimally integrated.	Analysis contains several errors or misinterpretations, but the overall approach is acceptable. Tables or graphs are minimal or not always clearly connected to the analysis.	Significant errors in analysis or calculations. Some confusion between CEA and CBA methods. Tables or graphs are either unclear or not used appropriately.	Analysis is largely incorrect, with major flaws in calculations and methodology. Tables or graphs are missing or used inappropriately, providing no added clarity.
Organization and Structure (10 marks)	Exceptionally well-organized report with logical flow and clear, coherent sections. Arguments and conclusions are easy to follow. Transitions between sections are smooth and support readability.	Strong organization and clear structure. Sections flow logically, and the argument is well-presented. Minor improvements in transitions or clarity possible.	Good organization overall, but some sections may lack smooth transitions or clear focus. Argument is generally clear but could be more concise.	Adequate structure but lacks clarity or logical flow in places. Some sections feel disjointed or hard to follow.	Weak organization. Ideas are presented in a disorganized manner, making the report difficult to follow. Sections are not well-connected.	No apparent structure. The report is disjointed, making it very difficult to follow the analysis or argument.

ECON3700 Written Report Rubric

Criteria	Exceptional (7) 85-100%	Advanced (6) 75-84%	Proficient (5) 65-74%	Functional (4) 50-64%	Developing (3) 47-49%	Absence-Minimal (1-2) 46% and below
Formatting (10 marks)	Impeccable adherence to formatting guidelines (font, spacing, APA referencing). Report is professional and polished with no formatting errors.	Follows formatting guidelines with minor errors (e.g., spacing or citation style). Presentation is polished and professional.	Follows most formatting guidelines but with several errors (e.g., font size, margins, citation issues).	Some formatting guidelines are followed, but there are multiple noticeable errors (e.g., inconsistent spacing, incorrect referencing).	Formatting is inconsistent or incorrect in multiple places, affecting professionalism. Numerous citation and structural errors.	Little to no adherence to formatting guidelines. Multiple citation and structural errors significantly affect readability.